October 2024

Dear Everyone,

I think I'm settling in to life in UK, but I feel the cold!!! Praise the Lord it hasn't snowed yet! I am enjoying watching the trees change colour, one bonus of Autumn in UK, it doesn't happen the same in Thailand.

Lynsey Ruth and Daniel

Since being back I've been to 2 funerals (Graham Loader and Margaret Matthews) and a wedding Lynsey-Ruth and Dan.

Had coffee with several folks. One being here at Grange Court. Since Covid they have hooked up with WhatsApp and there is more of a community feel which has been nice. It's also been good to meet folk and ask questions about bin day, re-cycling and compost!!

Coffee morning Grange Court

Lynsey-Ruth was married on the same day as our well-planned family get together, fortunately not at the same time, although as I was really struggling with a heavy cold (not Covid) I decided that rushing back for the evening 'do' was probably stretching the energy levels a bit. Glad to say that my absence meant that someone else was found very quickly to fill my place.

Family get together

Our Family 'do' was clouded by the fact that many of the family went down with Covid and streaming colds. For me I dosed myself up because, as 1 of my brothers said "hope Eunice can make it otherwise I think the rest of us will feel a bit disorientated."

Beside the fact that quite a few were sick and some forgot about it and the numbers were down, we had a really good time. I so appreciated everyone making the effort, especially those who had to travel a long way and it was good see the nephews and nieces with their children. Quite a few of the great nephews and nieces are new and so I hadn't seen some of them before.

This week I have been making presentations on Thailand and my work in Thailand so I've been working on various things to say. For those who have heard me speak every time I come home I am challenged to prepare something new or edited from previous years so that it will still be interesting.

Please pray that:

- The Lord will give wisdom and clarity in preparation for talks and presentations.
- The Lord will use me to bless and encourage people as I travel around speaking at different groups and staying with different people.
- The Lord will bless and encourage Achera as she continues to teach at Taa Chang
- I will adapt to the climate of UK, especially as this is long term and not just a Home Assignment
- I will use my time wisely and that I will be able to keep my "stuff" organized so that I don't have to walk into a flat that looks as though it was just burgled ☺

Thanks to all those who have contacted me about speaking and sharing about Thailand. I still have free dates so please feel free to contact me

Thank you so much for remembering me in your prayers

God bless you
Lots of Love to you all,

XXXXXXXXXXXX
